Unusual routes

Nogaredo, the village of the 'strie'

A small village on the right bank of the Adige River, in Vallagarina. In Nogaredo, the 'paese delle strie' (town of the witches) in Trentino, discover the grappa of the Marzadro Distillery, the wines of Castel Noarna and the witch trials recounted during the 'Calendimaggio' event. Once owned by the Lodron family, Castel Noarna is a fascinating castle dating back to the 11th century, surrounded by vineyards. If you love good organic wine, you can buy a few fine bottles here.

Get inspired

Castle of Avio | Avio

The ancient and evocative FAI property welcomes you to Trentino. A majestic circuit of towers and crenellated walls in a fortress complex conceived for the strategic control of the Adige Valley, but also a treasure chest of a luxuriant garden and precious and lively "Giottesque" pictorial cycles dedicated to love and war.

*In August, open daily from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.
Last admission half an hour before closing time.*

Hermitage of Santa Cecilia

In the municipality of Volano, a few steps from Castel Pietra, lies this hermitage with a priceless view over the Adige Valley, from Trento to Rovereto.

Leaning against the imposing sheer wall of Cengio Rosso, the solitary dwelling still welcomes the community of Volano around it on the occasion of 5 August. It is possible to reach the Hermitage in the summer by means of an equipped path for experienced hikers, equipped with a helmet and harness with carabiners.

Taste

Honey

An authentic custodian of the scents and flavours of the Trentino mountains, it represents the quintessence of the plants and flowers of meadows, pastures and woods: millefiori, acacia, chestnut, rhododendron, dandelion and fir honeydew are just some of the types of local honey. Many agritourisms in the area offer the possibility of tasting honey directly from the beehives set up in their fields.
